Life is beautiful but not always easy. It has problems too and the challenge lies in facing them with courage, letting the beauty of life act like a balm which makes the pain bearable during trying times by providing hope. Happiness and sorrow are the two sides of the same coin. Similarly life is full of moments of success and comfort disrupt. There is no human being on earth who has not been through struggle, suffering or failure. No doubt, life is beautiful and every moment it is fair of being alive but one should be always ready to face dearth and challenges. A person who has not met distress in life can never achieve success. Without hard work no one can obtain the victory easily. In recent days every one looks for painless way to find their delight.

Difficulties test the courage, patience, resolve and true character of human being. Adversity and hardships make a person strong and ready to face the contest of life with poise. There is no doubt that there can be no gain without pain. It is only when one toils and sweats it out that success is nourished and endless. Thus life should not be just a bed of roses but thorns are also a part of it and should be accepted by us just as we accept the beautiful side of life. The thorns remind one of how success and happiness can be shifty and thus not to feel upset and sadden rather remember that the pain of thorns is short lived, and the beauty of life would soon overcome the prick of thorns.

Those, who are under the idea that life is a bed of roses are sniping soon and become victims of misery and pain. One who faces snags with courage and accepts success without letting it go to its head is the one who feel real happiness, ease and peace in life. Those who think that good times last forever, easily yield to pressure during anxiety. They do not put in required hard work and efforts because they break down easily. You can take the example of a student who burns the midnight oil, makes forgo and resists appeals so that he can perform well. Similarly a successful executive has to face the ups and downs of life, not overlook that life is a mix of success and failure, joy and sorrow. If he loses hope during difficult times, he would not achieve success and would be replaced by others.
