A Sonnet for My Incomparable Mother

I often contemplate my childhood, Mom

I am a mother now, and so I know.

Hard work is mixed together with the fun;

You learned that when you raised me long ago.

I think of all the things you gave to me :

Sacrifice, devotion, love and tears.

Your heart, your mind, your energy and soul :

All these you spent on me throughout the years.

You loved me with a never-failing love

You gave me strength and sweet security,

And then you did the hardest thing of all :

You let me separate and set me free.

Everyday, I try my best to be

A mother like the mom you were to me.

A Road Accident

I was once an eye-witness to a road accident. I was travelling by bus from Ludhiana to Jalandhar. Our driver was very rash. A few persons requested him to see reason. But he went his way. In the meantime, another bus tried to overtake our bus. Our driver took it as a challenge. He did not make way. The other driver drove still faster. Very soon, both the buses began to run parallel on the road. Within no time, a truck came from the opposite side. There was a head-on-collision between the overtaking bus and the truck. The drivers of both the vehicles died on the spot. Four other persons also died. Two persons were injured seriously. It was a heart rending sight. I feel pained whenever I am reminded of the accident.
