One day, a horse came across a hungry leopard who was walking in search of some food. The horse was frightened to see him. The horse knew that soon he would be attacked by the hungry leopard. The horse was wise. He did not lose his cool.

The horse said to the leopard, “I know that you will kill me soon. However, I’ve a request!”

The leopard asked, “Tell me, what is your request?”

The horse replied, “My wife is alone at home and is waiting for me. If you kill me, she will be left all alone in this world. I request you to accompany me to my place and eat both of us, so that none of us will remain alive to cry for the other”.

The leopard happily agreed and accompanied the horse to his stable.

When the master of the horse saw the leopard coming with his horse, he prepared himself with a solid stick. As soon as the leopard reached there, the master attacked the leopard and beat him to death. “Never lose courage and wisdom in trouble”
